World Heritage Centres in Uttar Pradesh

1528. SHRI KAMAL AKHTAR: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) the State-wise details of World Heritage Centres in the country and most particularly in Uttar Pradesh;

(b) whether Government are actively considering for further development of such centres;

(c) if so,the details thereof and financial assistance released so far particularly for Uttar Pradesh; and

(d) the facilities expected to be increased for the tourists at such centres?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) There are 26 World Heritage sites in the country, out of which 18 sites under cultural category are under the jurisdication of Archaeological Survey of India. In Uttar Pradesh, three sites i.e. Taj Mahal, Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri have been inscribed on the World Heritage list.

The State-wise details of World Heritage sites is given in the Statement-I (See below).

(b) and (c) All efforts are being made by the Archaeological Survey of India to conserve and preserve the World Heritage sites in the best possible manner and to upgrade their environment.

The expenditure incurred during the last three years on conservation of World. Heritage monuments in Uttar Pradesh is given in the Statement-II (See below).

(d) Provision of tourist facilities like toilets, drinking water, souvenir shops, sale counter, wheel chairs, ramps etc. at all World Heritage Sites is a matter of high priority.

These facilities are provided at the three World Heritage sites of Uttar Pradesh at Agra and Fathepur Sikri. Archaeological Survey of India has developed a facilitation centre for tourists in the eastern courtyard of Taj Mahal. There is a proposal to develop a similar centre at the western courtyard also.
